Autumn News

Dear <<First Name>>

We hope you enjoy reading about the good work we have all achieved during the autumn period.

Thank you for your support and I would like to wish you an enjoyable festive season and new year ahead.

Warm regards

Clare Junak
General Manager

Projects

On the 14th August we sent a 20ft container to Dar es Salaam. It contained books and supplies for schools supported by Computers4Africa, the sponsors of this shipment. The remaining pallets will be donated to two new recipient schools, selected on behalf of the First Lady of Tanzania.

On the 17th September we sent a 20ft container to schools selected by the Wavambuzi charity in Tanzania.

The Rotary Club of Wendover & District raised £10,500 to build a new school library in Soweto and we were donated £1,500 worth of books for this project by Usborne Publishing.

On the 28th November our second shipment sponsored by the Waterloo Foundation was packed and sent to our Lesotho development project. It will be received by the Maseru Rotary in January and is an exciting partnership between School Aid and Dolen Cymru, Sentebale, and the Rotary Club of Maseru.

We have published the stage one Monitoring and Evaluation report on our first shipment to Malawi, sent last year.
